Ida Frederrika Lina "Edith" Basel
& Fritz Karl August "Gus" Heuer

Edith was born on 25 September 1890 in Astoria. She married on her 20th birthday in 1910 to August Heuer, age 30. They married in Astoria. Ellen (Peterson) Brach, Johan's sister, was Edith's close friend and bridesmaid.

August had been born in Germany. In 1920, Edith and August were living in Spokane, Washington. They made many life-long friends there, but by 1930, they were back in Astoria. Their only child, Janis, was born in Astoria in 1931. By 1940, they were living in the flats that Edith's father, Rudolph, had built on 6th Street in Astoria. He put up 2 buildings at the site of the old Ross Opera House. The one on 6th St. was smaller, while the one on Commercial, at the corner of 6th, had more apartments. After Marie's death, the Heuers moved into the Basel family home at the top of Franklin Ave.
